FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Denver, Colo. Attorney Lisa Monet Wayne Installed as First Vice President of National Assn. of Criminal Defense Lawyers

Washington, DC (Aug. 13, 2009) – Lisa Monet Wayne of Denver, Colo., was sworn in as First Vice President of the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers (NACDL) at the Association's 51st Annual Meeting in Boston, Mass., on Aug. 8. This is Wayne's fourth officer position on NACDL's Executive Committee, having previously served as the Association's Second Vice President (2008-09), Treasurer (2007-08) and Secretary (2006-07).

Lisa Wayne is an attorney in private practice in both state and federal courts around the country. She handles serious felonies, violent crime, and complex white collar cases involving mortgage and medical fraud including numerous high profile cases. Previously, Wayne was a Colorado State Public Defender for 13 years where she served as office head, training director, and senior trial attorney. She lectures nationally with NACDL, National Criminal Defense College, National Institute of Trial Advocates, American Bar Association, and other legal organizations. Wayne is currently an adjunct law professor at the University of Colorado where she teaches trial advocacy, and she serves on faculty at the Trial Practice Institute at Harvard Law School, The National Criminal Defense College, and Cardozo Law School. She is a legal analyst regarding high profile cases around the country and continues to be an advocate in all venues of the media addressing important issues confronting the criminally accused. In 2005, Wayne was honored with the Robert J. Heeney Award, NACDL's most prestigious recognition.
