Program Summary: No part of trial practice is more difficult or rewarding than cross-examination, and there is no CLE program more fitting for criminal defense lawyers to study the "Golden Rules of Cross." This program features nationally recognized experts and seasoned practitioners who will share their proven and time-tested methods for cross-examining; covering both basic and more advanced aspects of cross-examination. You will hone your cross-examination skills and learn to apply them across the board in your trial practice, from preparation to taking down that snitch on your way to an acquittal! The expert faculty from this program will guide you through the potentially dangerous and troubled waters of cross-examination, and give you the skills to cross the bridge to victory!
