

SEXUAL ASSAULT DEFENSE RESOURCES

1. MANUAL: SEXUAL ASSAULT: CHALLENGING PROPENSITY, PRIOR ACTS, AND SANE EXAMINATION EVIDENCE

Description: NACDL's Sexual Assault Resource Manual will help you devise an effective strategy for challenging propensity evidence using a two-pronged line of attack, identifying and understanding junk science in sex assault cases with a focus on rape trauma syndrome & child abuse accommodation, dealing with non-physical evidence such as dolls, art therapy, and interviews, and what to do with physical evidence. This manual will include a basic evidence checklist on a rape kit examination, and a DNA checklist for sexual assault. An entire chapter addresses SANE Examinations, including evidence collection forms, kits, medical examiner and SANE nurse protocols, language for use in cross-examination, sample examination areas for the medical personnel treating a patient, and much more. Available as a spiral bound hard copy manual.

2. TRAINING VIDEO: THE SANE EXAMINATION: FROM START TO FINISH FEATURING CATHLEEN BENNETT & STEPHANIE PAGE

Cathleen L. Bennett is the Criminal Defense Training Director at the Committee for Public Counsel Services. As a trial lawyer in the Public Defender Division, she defends indigent clients charged with crimes in the state courts of Massachusetts. She is on the faculty at the National Criminal Defense College, the Southern Public Defender Training Center where she received the 2011 Outstanding Faculty Award, and has taught at trial advocacy and other programs across the country. Bennett is an adjunct professor in trial advocacy at Boston College Law School.

Stephanie Page is a Senior Trial Counsel (one of three) with the Public Defender Division of the Massachusetts Committee for Public Counsel Services (CPCS). Upon graduating from Northeastern University School of Law in 1978, Ms. Page joined CPCS (formerly the Massachusetts Defenders Committee). She has been a member of the CPCS murder team since 1985 (the first woman to be added to that team). From 1988 – 1997 she served as the first CPCS Forensic Services Director.
