Michael Iacopino installed on Board of Directors of nation's top criminal defense organization

Washington D.C. — Michael J. Iacopino, a shareholder and director of the Manchester law firm, Brennan Caron Lenehan & Iacopino, was sworn in as a member of the board of directors of the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers at the organization's annual meeting in San Francisco July 31.

Iacopino also serves as the current President of the New Hampshire Association of Criminal Defense lawyers and chairs the organization's legislative committee. He has practiced law in Manchester since 1984.

Iacopino graduated from the University of New Hampshire in 1980 with a degree in economics. He graduated from Suffolk University Law School in 1984. He is also a graduate of the Trial Practice Institute of the National Criminal Defense College at Mercer Law School in Macon, Georgia.
