Gerald F. Uelmen installed on Board of Directors of nation's top criminal defense organization

Washington D.C. — Gerald F. Uelmen of Santa Clara, Calif., was sworn in as a member of the Board of Directors of the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers at its annual meeting in San Francisco July 31.

Uelmen currently serves on the Editorial Advisory Board of NACDL's monthly magazine The Champion, to which he contributes a bi-monthly column on motions practice. He is an active member of the California Attorneys for Criminal Justice, and served as president in 1982. He also is active in the California Academy of Appellate Lawyers, and served as president in 1989.

Uelmen currently serves on the Boards for the Sixth District Appellate Project and the California Habeas Corpus Resource Center.
