William P. Wolf installed on Board of Directors of nation's top criminal defense organization

Washington D.C. — William P. Wolf of Chicago, Ill., was sworn in as a member of the Board of Directors of the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers at its annual meeting in San Francisco July 31.

Wolf currently serves as an assistant public defender in the second largest public defender office in the country, Cook County Public Defender. He is a member of the office's Homicide Task Force and represents people charged with capital and non-capital homicide cases. Wolf previously served NACDL as an Affiliate representative on the Board of Directors.
