FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Boston, Mass., Attorney Tracy A. Miner Elected to Board of Directors of National Criminal Defense Bar Assn.

Washington, DC (Aug. 15, 2011) – Boston, Mass., attorney Tracy Miner was elected to the Board of Directors of the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers (NACDL) at the Association's 53rd Annual Meeting in Denver, Colo., on Aug 6. She currently serves on NACDL's White Collar Committee and has previously served as President of the Massachusetts Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers, from which she later received the President's Award.

A highly experienced criminal defense attorney chairing the Mintz Levin firm's White Collar Defense group, Miner also serves on the Federal Court Criminal Justice Act Panel, and is a member of the First Circuit Rules Committee. She serves on the board of advisors to the American Law Institute's Sentencing Project and as a member of the Advisory Committee for the U.S. Court of Appeals for the First Circuit. Miner has worked both on the board of editors for the Boston Bar Journal and as a faculty member of the ABA Law Student Division.

Miner is admitted to practice in Massachusetts, New Hampshire, and the First Circuit and the District of Columbia Circuit of the U.S. Court of Appeals. She received her B.A. in Psychology from Notre Dame in 1980 and her J.D. from Boston College Law School in 1985.
