

RESEARCH AND WRITING SPECIALIST

The Office of the Federal Defender for the District of Minnesota is accepting applications for the position of Research and Writing Specialist. The office represents indigent persons charged with federal criminal offenses at both the district court and appellate levels. The position available is primarily a research and writing position.

Qualified applicants must have a commitment to the representation of indigent persons in addition to excellent writing and legal research skills. Applicants must also possess the ability to communicate effectively.

Experience in federal court is also strongly preferred but not required. Qualified applicants must be admitted to practice law and be a member in good standing of a state bar.

This is a full-time position with federal benefits. Starting salary range is approximately $50,000 to $65,000, commensurate with the person's qualifications and experience. The selected candidate will be subject to a background check as a condition of employment.

To apply, please send a letter of interest, resume, writing sample, and the names of three references to:
