

United States Courts for the Ninth Circuit
POSITION VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT
FEDERAL PUBLIC DEFENDER
DISTRICT OF OREGON

The United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit invites applications from all qualified persons for the position of Federal Public Defender (FPD) for the District of Oregon. This position will be available on October 1, 2014.

The FPD Office is headquartered in Portland, OR, and maintains branch offices in Eugene and Medford, OR. The appointee will manage an annual budget of approximately $13 million and an office of approximately 80 employees, which include attorneys, paralegals, investigators, and administrative personnel. The Federal Defender in Oregon also administers the Criminal Justice Act Panel. The term of appointment is four years, renewable upon demonstration of highly satisfactory performance in office. The current authorized annual salary is $157,100. The Office of the Federal Public Defender provides federal criminal defense services to individuals unable to afford counsel. An applicant must satisfy the following conditions: (1) be admitted to practice before the highest court of at least one state; (2) be a member in good standing of every state Bar of which he/she is a member; (3) have a minimum of 5 years of criminal practice, preferably with significant federal criminal trial experience; (4) possess administrative expertise; (5) have a reputation for integrity; and (6) be committed to the representation of those unable to afford counsel.

A Local Screening Committee will review all applications and conduct interviews of the most qualified candidates. The Committee will refer the most qualified candidates to the Ninth Circuit's Standing Committee on Federal Public Defenders, who will refer the best qualified candidate to the Court of Appeals for selection and appointment.

Application forms and more information may be obtained by contacting the address and/or telephone/fax numbers listed below.
