5. As provided in Section 303, Title 5 U.S.C., the SIS is authorized to administer oaths to witnesses in connection with an official investigation.

Chapter 3. Communications Monitoring

300. MONITORING INMATE AUTOMATED ACTIVITIES

Responsibility for monitoring inmates' automated activities (financial, telephone, correspondence) rests with the Intelligence Section. In the institution, the SIS office assumes operational responsibility.

Legal questions concerning monitoring of inmate financial, telephone, and correspondence activities should be directed to the Regional Counsel or designee.

301. COMMUNICATION METHODS

Inmates use telephone calls, written correspondence, video visiting, and electronic messaging to maintain contact with individuals in the community. (b)(7)(E): (b)(7)(F)

303. SPECIAL ADMINISTRATIVE MEASURES (SAM)

Refer to the Office of General Counsel for specific SAM requirements. The governing Federal regulations are:

- 28 CFR 501.2, used in national security cases to prevent the unauthorized disclosure of classified information when the Attorney General determines that disclosure of such information would pose a threat to national security and there is a danger that the inmate will disclose such information.
- 28 CFR 501.3, used to prevent future acts of violence and terrorism when the Attorney General determines that there is a substantial risk that a prisoner's communications or contacts with persons could result in death or serious bodily injury to persons, or substantial damage to property that would entail the risk of death or serious bodily injury to persons.

Appropriately labeled and processed/placed special or legal (attorney-client privileged) communications will not be monitored.

403. PROTECTIVE CUSTODY CASES

A Protective Custody (PC) case is completed when an inmate is placed in administrative detention for protection at his/her request or upon staff determination that the inmate needs protection from a specific inmate(s). If there is a generalized perceived threat against an inmate, a threat assessment is conducted. See the Program Statement Special Housing Units (SHU) for specific categories under which staff may consider inmates as potential protection cases.

The situation of inmates in protective custody must be investigated to determine validity or verify the inmate's need for protection.

b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(F)

408. INMATE ON INMATE SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

Once an allegation of sexual misconduct is brought to a staff member's attention, it is important to determine if the allegation qualifies as abusive sexual contact or a non-consensual sexual act.

SIS staff will promptly refer inmates reported or suspected of being the victim of sexually abusive behavior by staff or inmates to Psychology Services for assessment of vulnerability and treatment needs, and all inmate allegations of sexual abuse, by a staff member or an inmate, will be handled in a confidential manner by all staff involved in the investigation in accordance with the Program Statement Sexually Abusive Behavior Prevention and Intervention Program.

1. Definitions

- a. Abusive Sexual Contact. Any allegation of contact to sexually exploit an inmate without his/her consent, or of one who is unable to consent or refuse; and intentional touching, either directly or through the clothing, of the genitalia, anus, groin, breast, inner thigh, or buttocks of any inmate.
- b. Non-Consensual Sexual Act. Any allegation of contact of any inmate without his/her consent, or of one who is unable to consent or refuse; contact between the penis and vagina or penis and anus, including penetration, however slight; or contact between the mouth and the penis, vagina, or anus; or penetration of the anal or genital opening of another by a hand, finger, or other object.
- c. Repetitive Sexual Harassment. Repeated and unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or verbal comments, gestures, or actions of a derogatory or offensive sexual nature by one inmate, detainee, or resident directed toward another; repeated verbal comments or gestures of a sexual nature to an inmate, detainee, or resident by a staff member, contractor, or volunteer, including demeaning references to gender, sexually suggestive or derogatory comments about body or clothing, or obscene language or gestures.
- d. Substantiated. Proven to have occurred.
- e. Unsubstantiated. Insufficient evidence or conflicting facts, creating the inability to prove that an assault happened or did not happen.
