

The DePaul University College of Law Journal for Social Justice and the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers present

Judicial Independence Symposium

Thursday, October 20, 2011

- 9:00am      Welcoming Remarks      Gregory Mark
Dean, DePaul University College of Law
- 9:30am      When the Law and Business Interests Disagree
Thomas Kilbride,
Supreme Court Chief Justice, Illinois Third District
- 10:15am      The Sudden Explosion in Judicial Campaign Spending
Bert Brandenburg
Executive Director, Justice at Stake
- 11:00am      Coffee Break
- 11:15am      Judicial Recusal Motions      Jed Shugerman, Harvard Law School
- Noon-1:30pm Lunch Break – on your own
- 1:30pm      When Special Interests Win
former Iowa Supreme Court Justice David Baker
- 2:15pm      Making the Record Before a Biased Tribunal
Lisa Wayne, NACDL President
- 3:00pm      Coffee Break
- 3:15pm      Judicial Neutrality Panel      Amanda Frost,
American University College of Law and
Stefanie Lindquist, University of Texas at Austin
School of Law
- 4:00 pm      The Politics of Criminal Defense Before an Elected Judiciary
Andrea D. Lyon, DePaul University College of Law
- 4:30pm      Concluding Remarks      Lisa Wayne, President, NACDL and Andrea D. Lyon, DePaul University College of Law