ORDER DIRECTING THE COMPASSIONATE RELEASE
OF DEFENDANT MARK RESNICK UNDER 18 U.S.C.
§ 3582(C)(1) AS AMENDED BY THE FIRST STEP ACT, P.L. 115-391

McMahon, C.J.:

For the reasons set forth in the attached Opinion and Order of this court, signed April 2, 2020,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Defendant Mark Resnick's motion for compassionate release is GRANTED; and it is further

ORDERED, that Defendant's sentence be and hereby is reduced to time served, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(1)(A); and it is further

ORDERED, that the Warden of FCI Devins, Massachusetts, shall forthwith release from custody the person of Defendant Mark Resnick; and it is further

ORDERED, that sufficient cause having been shown, Defendant Resnick shall not spend 14 days in quarantine at FCI Devins prior to his release, but shall be released immediately upon the institution's receipt of this Order, and shall instead spend 14 days in quarantine at the place where he will reside; and it is further

ORDERED, that said Defendant Mark Resnick shall be on supervised release status, with home confinement until October 7, 2021, but without electronic monitoring;

ORDERED, that Defendant Mark Resnick shall abide by all the terms and conditions of supervised release that were imposed on him at his original sentencing and that are memorialized in his judgment of conviction; and it is further,

ORDERED that upon his release Defendant Resnick shall proceed immediately to 30 Stony Brook Drive, #C-6, Glastonbury CT, 06033 (the "Residence"), where he shall reside during his term of supervised release, and in no other location without the permission of the supervising Department of Probation; and it is further

ORDERED that for the first fourteen days of his term of supervised release, Defendant Resnick shall remain in self-quarantine and shall be isolated in a separate bedroom from his wife in the Residence, and shall be allowed no contact with any other person, including members of his family, except for medical personnel in case of an emergency; and it is further

ORDERED that the Probation Department of the Southern District of New York shall immediately prepare paperwork to transfer supervision over Defendant Resnick to the District of Connecticut, which has graciously agreed to supervise this Defendant during his period of supervised release; and it is further ORDERED that, within 72 hours of his being notified by his counsel, Janeanne Murray, Esq., that the District of Connecticut has formally accepted jurisdiction over his supervision, said Defendant Mark Resnick shall contact the Department of Probation for the District of Connecticut, Enid Largaespada, Probation Officer, or Brian Topor, Supervisory Probation Officer, and shall follow any instructions given to him by that office.
