1 fact establishing each of the essential elements of the crime. Therefore,
2 Defendant's plea of guilty is accepted.

3 ACCORDINGLY, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

4 1. The Court finds that pursuant to the parties' stipulated Deferred
5 Sentencing Agreement, Defendant knowingly waives her right to be sentenced 6 without unreasonable delay. The Court therefore defers setting a sentencing 7 hearing for a period of 18 months, pending Defendant's compliance with the 8 conditions of the Deferred Sentencing Agreement.

9 2. A status conference is SET for June 8, 2027, at 11:00 a.m., in Spokane
10 Courtroom 901. Absent truly exigent circumstances, the Court will not consider a 11 request for a continuance of sentencing unless: (1) the request is made by written 12 motion, (2) in accordance with LCivR 7, and (3) the motion and supporting 13 declaration are filed at least seven (7) days before the scheduled sentencing 14 hearing.

15 3. Pending sentencing, Defendant shall remain released pursuant the release 16 order in this matter. ECF No. 123. Defendant shall continue to comply with the 17 conditions of pretrial release previously set forth by the Court at ECF No. 139 and 18 any future Court order amending those conditions. Defendant is further ordered to 7 Sentence Payment.

8 4. The public and the press have common law and First Amendment rights 9 to access court proceedings and court documents. The Court recognizes that given 10 the availability of electronic records, certain materials are appropriately filed under 11 seal. However, if a party intends to file materials under seal, the party shall, after 12 considering whether the provisions of Fed. R. Cr. P. 49.1 provide sufficient privacy
13 protection, file a motion to seal applying the Ninth Circuit's methodology as set 14 forth in United States v. Doe, 870 F.3d 991 (9th Cir. 2017). No motion to seal is 15 necessary if the materials contain the names of cooperating witnesses or unindicted
