Copies of any subpoenas issued must be provided to opposing counsel within 24 hours of their issuance, and opposing counsel will then have the opportunity to raise any objections pursuant to U.S. v. Nixon, 418 U.S. 683 (1974) ("in order to require production prior to trial, the moving party must show: (1) that the documents are evidentiary and relevant; (2) that they are not otherwise procurable reasonably in advance of trial by exercise of due diligence; (3) that the party cannot properly prepare for trial without such production and inspection in advance of trial and that failure to obtain such inspection may tend unreasonably to delay the trial; and (4) that the application is made in good faith and is not intended as a general fishing expedition.") Mailed notice. (jcc,)
