

NACDL's 19th Annual Seminar

DEFENDING MODERN DRUG CASES

Sahara Hotel & Casino, Las Vegas, NV

October 21-24, 2026

Criminal drug prosecutions are once again increasing and coming back with a force — the fight is on! If you defend persons accused of drug offenses, now is the time to sharpen your skills and prepare for battle in today's increasingly complex criminal legal system.

Join NACDL in Las Vegas this October for the 19th Annual Defending Modern Drug Cases Seminar, an intensive, trial skills-focused program designed to give you a strategic edge from intake through sentencing. Learn cutting-edge techniques and proven practices from the nation's leading criminal defense practitioners as they break down modern drug cases step by step and show you how to win them.

Over three immersive days, you'll gain practical insights you can immediately put to work in your next case — while connecting with experienced defenders from across the country and building a powerful national referral network. It's high-level training, real-world strategy, and invaluable networking, all in one of the most electric settings in the country.

PROGRAM TOPICS INCLUDE:

- Client Intake
- Bail & Detention
- Suppression & Fourth Amendment Challenges
- United States v. Hemani
- Money Laundering and Transmitting
- What's New With RICO
- Identifying, Preparing & Using Experts
- Pretrial Motions & Motions in Limine
- Warrants & Wiretaps
- Voir Dire & Jury Selection
- Surveillance
- Cross-Examination of Snitches
- Forfeiture
- Geofencing, CDRs, Timing Advance Records
- Sentencing & Mitigation

Whether you're a seasoned trial lawyer or gearing-up for your next major drug case, this seminar will elevate your practice and prepare you for success in the courtroom. Three days. Elite training. Unmatched networking. Las Vegas.

Don't just get ready — get ahead!
