NACDL v. BOP, 1:18-cv-02399-JMC (DDC)

Dear Ms. Graham:

This is in response to the above-referenced Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request.

In response to the Court's order, ECF No. 69, staff located 22 pages of responsive records, identified as "BOP Record J." After careful review, we determined 2 pages are appropriate for release in full and 20 pages are appropriate for release in part. Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552, records were redacted under the following exemptions:

- (b)(5), Permits withholding information under the deliberative process privilege, including the pre-decisional documents, or information that could be withheld under civil discovery, attorney-client, or attorney-work product privileges.
- (b)(6), Permits withholding of records and information about individuals when disclosure would be a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.
- (b)(7)(C), Permits withholding of records when an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy could reasonably be expected.

Please note, all redactions applied under exemption (b)(5) are asserted under the Deliberative Process Privilege.

BOP considered the foreseeable harm standard when reviewing responsive records and applying FOIA exemptions.

If you have questions about this response, please feel free to contact Sian Jones, Assistant United States Attorney, this office, or the Federal Bureau of Prisons' (BOP) FOIA Public Liaison, Ms. Kara Christenson, at 202-616-7750, 320 First Street NW, Suite 936, Washington DC 20534, or BOP-OGC-EFOIA-S@bop.gov.

Sincerely,

L. Stokes
